LARRY

LLOYD

HELLO again and welcome back to Springfield Park for our first ever game against Oxford United. Now that everything is back to normal behind the scenes here at the Latics, we are now just concentrating on climbing up the League table and today's game gives us the opportunity to consolidate our recent good run. I was extremely pleased that our recent clash with Sheffield United, in which we got our revenge for last year's disappointments, was televised on Granada T.V., and the comments from the resident "experts" about the high standard of play in the game was gratifying to hear. Elton Welsby has certainly made up for his unfortunate comments of the past and is now always a welcome guest at the Club.

That game saw the final appearance of Jim Steel, whose loan period from Oldham has now expired. Jim is a talented and likeable lad, but his departure merely highlights the harsh realities of modern football. Oldham had put a price on his head which was way beyond our means. At the moment, I, along with the Directors, have got to face up to a period of strict financial controls which mean that we have to utilise our limited playing staff to the full. Fortunately, each and everyone of the lads has responded well to the demands that have been made of them, and the patience of you, the supporters, has been a tremendous help. I would, however, add my voice to that of our Commercial Department and ask you to support us by buying lottery tickets, souvenirs and our new product, Christmas Hampers for 1983. It may seem strange for a Managers column to contain such a plea for support, but it is only when the finances of the club improve that we can look at moving through the Divisions. So think of that when someone asks you to buy a lottery ticket.

And as this is our last match before Christmas, I would like to wish each and every one of you a happy Christmas and a good New Year. 1982 has been a good year for the Latics, but I know it has not been that good for many people in Wigan and let us all hope that 1983 sees a prosperous and successful club supported by prosperous and successful fans. Good luck to us all.

Larry Lloyd.

THIRD DIVISION

Round Up

by Harold Ashurst

BRADFORD City, still sore after the departure of Roy McFarland to Derby County, have finally got a new manager.

He is Leeds and former England defender Trevor Cherry who ended a few days of deliberation by agreeing to become the new Player Boss at Valley Parade.

Leeds and Bradford agreed a £10,000 transfer fee and Cherry was expected to make his debut in today's derby clash with Sheffield United.

The marriage of Bristol Rovers and former Southampton and England star Mike Channon appears to be turning sour.

Channon, who had an unsuccessful spell at Newcastle earlier in the season alongside Kevin Keegan, joined the Eastville club in October, but has been unable to command a regular First team place.

The best Channon has been getting is the substitute's shirt, but even that was taken from him for the Cup game against Plymouth last week and given to Graham Withey.

How long will Channon stay at Bristol is now the question on everyone's lips.

The shortcomings in the loan system have never been more illustrated than at present with the FA Cup ties upon us.

Players are being signed on loan only to be told by the loaning clubs not to play in the FA Cup because they don't want them to be cup tied.

It happened to Latics with Jim Steel against Telford and it happened to Doncaster last week when Bradford City told full back Gary Watson he couldn't play for Billy Bremner's side in case he was needed later in the season.

What's the point in having a player and having to pay his wages if he can't play in important games.

Scrap the loan system is what I say.

Great interest surrounded the booking of goalkeeper Peter Shilton a fortnight ago for illegal marking of the pitch. His crime was not a serious one and, remembering that a player has to accrue 20 penalty points before he is suspended, Shilton has to commit the offence 19 more times before he is forced to miss a match. For your information, and for its first known publication, I list below official F.A. scale of penalty points for the various infringements of the laws of the game.

SCHEDULE OF PENALTY POINTS

Caution Offences

i) UNGENTLEMANLY CONDUCT

In addition to penalising the infringement, the Referee may decide that the following offences, in certain situations, also constitute ungentlemanly conduct for which a caution can be issued. In such cases the following scale will apply:

LAW 1
Illegal marking of the pitch	1
LAW 12
Intentional handling of the ball	2
Intentional obstruction	3
Intentional tripping	4
Wasting time	2

Shirt Pulling etc.	4
Goalkeeper wasting time (Section 5b)	2
Player using shoulders of his own team colleague to assist him in heading the ball	1
Moving arms about to obstruct opponent	2
Goalkeeper lying on the ball to waste time	2
Dangerous or foul play	4
Foul tackle	4

LAW 13

Encroachment within 10 yards of the ball	3
Gesticulating in front of player taking kick	2

LAW 14

Encroachment by a defender	2
Encroachment by an attacker	2
Gesticulating by kicker	2

LAW 15

Gesticulating in front of thrower	2
Any other offence (not listed above) deemed by the Referee to be ungentlemanly conduct	2

ii) SHOWING DISSENT iii) PERSISTENT INFRINGEMENT OF THE LAWS OF THE GAME

iv) ENTERING OR RE-ENTERING THE FIELD OF PLAY WITHOUT THE REFEREE'S PERMISSION	1

THE LOCAL VIEW

BY GEOFF KEMP

ASPULL continued their lone bid to bring the Lancashire Football Association Amateur Shield to this area with a tremendous win against Ramsbottom United.

All the other local teams fell by the wayside in earlier stages of the competition, but Aspull show no signs of joining their Amateur League companions after their Third Round victory over the Bolton Combination team. Aspull won 5-1, and in doing so claimed a place in the last sixteen of the competition.

The scoring began after eight minutes with a headed goal from Harrison after a cross by O'Neil. O'Neil was also instrumental in the second goal when he was brought down in the penalty area after a good run from the half-way line. Bailey duly scored from the spot.

In the second half Harrison claimed his second goal after a run down the wing by Hindley. Ramsbottom scored in the 66th minute but it proved to be their only consolation since within three minutes Harrison had scored Aspull's fourth and completed his personal hat-trick. With five minutes to go Harrison popped up again to return the earlier favour by putting Hindley to score the final goal.

Meanwhile, the team blocking Aspull's way at the top of the Wigan Amateur League, Bethel FC, suffered their first defeat of the season when they went down 1-0 at home to Ince PC. The goal came from McCarrick in only the second minute of the match and Ince then had to survive the other 88 minutes to take the points.

The Lancashire FA Under-Eighteens Inter-League squad was mentioned a fortnight ago because of the inclusion of Latics schoolboy star Mark Shaw, but here is the full squad who will compete in the Inter-League contest: E. Tyrer, M. Sephton, D. Robinson, D. Aspinall, M. Shaw (all Birchley); S. O'Keefe (Bispham); A. Byetheway, S. Bradshaw (Bridge-water); P. Bowie, M. Dalton (Orrell Celtic); G. Darbyshire, C. Billington, A. Gray (Poolstock); A. Archer, T. Mason (Standish); P. Aspinall (St. Cuthberts); M. Campbell, A. Forster, S. Marrow (St. Judes); A. Goodlad (St. Thomas).

What the papers say...

The Sunday People

WIGAN WONDERS

Wigan Athletic 3 Sheffield United 2.

Wigan team boss Larry Lloyd was given more ammunition for his claim that the players are giving him everything.

Not least Steel, the on-loan striker who scored two goals on his 23rd birthday.

Lloyd had told the fans before the game: "My future lies in the hands of others".

Afterwards he said: "The answer is the team's performance, and in our last four League games we have had three wins and a draw".

He added that he was "looking for a chance not a showdown" this week when Chairman Freddie Pye returns from holiday.

Wigan's first goal came from a left wing corner. As Methven headed the ball in from close range, Conroy parried the effort but Lowe was there to apply the finishing touch. McMahon wasn't far off with another effort, then a four-man move ended with Butler crossing the ball and Steel leaving Conroy helpless from close range.

And when Conroy and Charles got into a tangle straight from the restart, Steel was there to snap up the chance. United rarely looked like cracking the Wigan defence until they were given a penalty.

Even when Morris scored it didn't entirely reverse the flow of play. Twice Methven was denied goals as Conroy made superb saves.

With time running out, the Blades threw much more into attack and they had their second goal when Trusson was given time and space to steer his header home.

The News of the World LLOYD'S LOAN STAR STEEL'S MAGIC TOUCH

Wigan's talented teenagers did troubled player boss Larry Lloyd proud, while on-loan striker Jim Steel celebrated his 23rd birthday with two goals.

The more experienced Sheffield

United were rarely in the picture and only a late revival made the scoreline respectable.

Lloyd, whose future at Springfield Park is in doubt following a letter in midweek from the board, commented: "I was very pleased with the kids, although we almost let them in at the end, but that was down to lack of experience".

"Everyone is pulling out the stops for me. Since all this business about my future cropped up we have won three and drawn one. That's not a bad way to answer the critics, I will see Chairman Freddie Pye next week to sort everything out".

United, with Everton midfielder Trevor Ross making his debut in exchange for Terry Curran, were disjointed and lacking in pace as the Wigan youngsters gave them the runaround.

BRILLIANT

And the result could have been worse but for goalkeeper Steve Conroy making two brilliant reflex saves in the second half.

Eighteen-year-old David Lowe headed in the first goal after 15 minutes and Jim Steel—whose loan period from Oldham expired after the match—cracked in Wigan's second after Lowe had pulled the ball back from the by-line.

A minute after the break Steel pushed in Wigan's third after a terrible mix-up in the Sheffield defence, but, against the run of play, United's best player, Colin Morris, pulled one back from the penalty spot after he had been brought down by Walsh.

A goal out of the blue, a powerful header from Mike Trusson with 11 minutes of the game left, gave Sheffield heart but Wigan, with Lowe and Kevin Langley outstanding, held firm.

The Sunday Mirror Wigan Kids of Steel

Wigan youngsters delivered the goods again for "under-pressure" manager Larry Lloyd. His likely lads stunned Gillingham 2-0 last week and it was Sheffield United's turn to feel the force of their non-stop running yesterday.

Wigan took the lead after 15 minutes when 18-year-old David Lowe scooped a parried Colin Methven header into the net.

But the hero was birthday boy Jim Steel, on loan from Oldham, who celebrated in style with his first two goals for the club.

He first came after 27 minutes when he was well-placed at the near post to slam home. United were guilty of an amazing mix-up after the break. Keeper Steve Conroy and full back Steve Charles tangled on the edge of the box and Steel pounced to fire into an empty net.

This brought Sheffield into their first serious attacks of the game and they pulled one back in the 54th minute when winger Colin Morris scored from a penalty after he was brought down by Steve Walsh.

Mike Trusson made it 3-2 in the dying minutes when he headed in a Martin Henderson free kick.

The Daily Mirror Superkids state case for Larry

Wigan player-manager Larry Lloyd faces a "clean-the-air" meeting with chairman Freddie Pye today but he stated his case on Saturday with a 3-2 victory over Sheffield United.

No second-rate boss with seven regulars injured could still field a side including five teenagers well organised and motivated enough to dominate an expensive outfit like United.

The Wigan line-up cost £40,000 all-in and as United manager Ian Porterfield said: "Wigan were enthusiastic and worked ever so hard".

On-loan Jim Steel, with a birthday double, and young David Lowe had put the home side firmly in command before tiredness in the team's youthful ranks let the visitors salvage some pride with a Colin Morris penalty and a Mike Trusson header.

The effectiveness of his side's show, inspired by old hand Colin Methven, wasn't lost on Lloyd. "My only answer to criticism is the team's performance", he said, "and that's three wins and a draw in our last four League games."

"But really the situation between myself and the chairman should never have got out of hand as it has. I hope we can sort things out because the present atmosphere isn't right. It was nice to see the players come through and work for me exactly as I asked — and players don't respond like that to a bad manager".

The rise of Oxford United from the obscurity of Southern League football to the Second Division of the Football League gave them a record for the fastest rise from non-League soccer to Division II. Never before had a club risen through three divisions of the League within seven years of its election. This record has now been beaten by Hereford United.

When Accrington Stanley folded in 1962, Oxford were almost an automatic choice to fill the vacancy in Division IV. When most other clubs might justifiably have felt their ambitions had been realised, Oxford United looked upon this as only the first step in their development. The careful planning continued and Manager Arthur Turner had the distinction of leading Oxford into the sixth round of the F.A. Cup in 1964 — the first of only three Fourth Division clubs ever to get that far.

One year later, Oxford crept into the Fourth Division's last promotion place, with their highest ever points total (61) and most League goals (87). After two years establishing themselves in the Third Division they won the Championship in their third season, the team captain being Ron Atkinson, now Manager of Manchester United.

The Second Division was a hard struggle but Ron Saunders was brought in as Team Manager with a dozen matches left and they finished one place above the relegation zone. Saunders departed for Norwich City immediately after this narrow escape and Gerry Summers took over as Team Manager in the summer of 1969.

Summers was dismissed in October 1975 and was replaced by Mick Brown, Summers' assistant for the last six years. The club's first time was so bad that Brown could do no better in consecutive seasons. Oxford United were relegated for the first time in their history at the end of the season.

After ten years in the Third Division, Mick Brown left for W.B. Brown of Assistant Manager of Manchester United's assistant manager (Manchester United) in July 1977. Bill Asprey who had been with the club for fourteen months took over as manager.

United struggled in the early 1980s during the 1980/81 season, when a precarious 20th place finish meant he was dismissed.

and Bolton Wanderers boss Ian Greaves. The team prospered under his managership, managed to avoid relegation and this season had good runs in both Cup competitions and were well placed in the League when Greaves decided to leave the club in favour of Wolverhampton Wanderers.

In March 1982 former Birmingham City boss Jim Smith was brought in to fill the vacant Manager's position at the club. Promotion from Division III looked a distinct possibility with only a handful of matches left of the 1981/82 campaign but losing the last four games, three of which were away from home, confined Oxford United to another season in Division III.

The team's shirts bear the letters bpcc which stands for British Printing and Communications Corporation — the Company of the Chairman Mr. Robert Maxwell.

GARY BRIGGS — Born Leeds, 21.6.59. Position — Central Defender. Has been a first team regular since signing from Middlesbrough in July 1978 and has made nearly 200 League appearances. Voted Player of the Year at the end of last season.

KEVIN BROCK — Born Oxfordshire, 9.9.62. Position — Midfield. Former England Schoolboy International. A fine example of the club's youth policy, Kevin turned down a £150,000 move to Brighton four months after signing professional on 10th September 1979, the day after his 17th birthday. After a spell in the Reserves at the beginning of last season Kevin fought his way back into the First team, making 28 appearances and scoring 5 goals.

JOHN BUTCHER — Born Newcastle, 27.5.56. Position — Goalkeeper. John was signed on a free transfer from Blackburn Rovers during the summer. He spent nine seasons at Ewood Park making over 100 appearances.

DAVID FOGG — Born Liverpool, 28.5.51. Position — Full Back. Signed on a free transfer from Wrexham prior to 1976/77 season, David has played regularly in the first team ever since and has made 254 League appearances.

PETER FOLEY — Born Bicester, 10.9.56. Position — Forward. Signed professional in 1974 after serving an apprenticeship with the club. Former Eire Youth and Under 21 International. Peter has made 263 League appearances and 66 goals.

TREVOR HEBBERD — Born Winchester, 19.6.58. Position — Striker. Transferred to the club from Southampton in March 1982 and has since made 15 appearances for United, scoring twice.

DAVID LINNEY — Born Birmingham, 5.9.61. Position — Defender/Midfield. David was given a free transfer by Birmingham City this summer but was immediately snapped up by Manager Smith. Had made just the one league appearance for the Blues.

MALCOLM SHOTTON — Born Newcastle, 16.2.57. Position — Central Defender. Signed for £15,000 from Nuneaton Borough during the 1980 close season. Was with Leicester City for 3½ years as a youngster and also played for Atherstone before joining Nuneaton. Malcolm scored 4 goals in 40 appearances last season and his team-mates elected him Player's Player of the Year for the second year running for his performances in the heart of the United defence.

TIM SMITHERS — Born Ramsgate, 22.1.56. Position — Full Back/Midfield. Another £15,000 signing from Nuneaton during the summer of 1980, where he spent four seasons, playing on the left-wing for the first three years. Only missed 2 League games last season.

RAY TRAIN — Born Nuneaton, 10.2.51. Position — Midfield. Ray was purchased from Watford in March 1982 for the sum of £10,000 to give stability and experience to United's midfield. Before joining Watford he was with Walsall, Carlisle United, Sunderland and Bolton Wanderers. Ray made 15 appearances last season and is Club Captain.

MICK VINTER — Born Boston, Lincs., 23.5.54. Position — Forward. Mick joined us from Wrexham in July 1982 in a £25,000 deal. Made 25 League & Cup appearances for Wrexham last season scoring 11 goals and he previously played for Notts County.

JUNIOR LATICS COACHING SPECIAL

HEY! What about this for great news. We are holding the first of a series of Junior Latics Coaching Schools on Thursday, 30th December on the Astro Turf of the all-weather pitch. There will be two sessions for you to choose from, each lasting three hours, starting at 9 in the morning or 1 in the afternoon.

Putting you through your paces will be two of the best coaches in Greater Manchester, Peter Jackson and Billy Addison, and so that you will all benefit from the coaching, places will be limited to just 60. Yes, it's on a first come, first served basis.

The cost is £1 per head. Where else could you get the best coaching available for that sort of money?

That's not all. This is just the first in a series of coaching schemes ending in a fantastic two-week course in the summer holidays. But more about that later.

DISCO PARTY

What did I say! You've got to admit it, I did say it would be a great night didn't I. But even I was surprised at the turn-out on such a bad night. At six o'clock I didn't honestly think anyone would turn up because of the fog and ice, and when I heard about the 200 car pile-up on the M61 I didn't think we'd have a Disco either considering that the equipment, D.J.'s, and the whole lot had to come from Manchester. But by 7.45 p.m. the place was throbbing to the sounds of Piccadilly's D.J. Mike Shaft, the temperature was up in the 90's and it was great.

Many thanks once again to Piccadilly's Steve Murphy, Mike Shaft and the rest of the boys, all the players and of course, Larry Lloyd who once again got the biggest cheer of the night.

MASCOT

Today's match-day mascot is David Heap. David attends St. Thomas More School and his hobbies are football, rugby and fishing.

He plays for Junior Latics Under 12's football team and played for Wigan Schools R.L. team at Wembley Stadium in May.

David's favourite players are Eamon O'Keefe and Kevin Langley.

Have a nice day today David.

John Fillingham,
Chairman.

JUNIOR LATICS

Half Time Gossip

Mixed fortunes for ex-Latics players in last week's Fourth Division clash between Stockport County and Crewe Alexandra. Micky Quinn made the headlines with the first hat-trick scored at Edgeley Park for two years, but Crewe's Clive Evans was substituted after seventy minutes. Micky's performance impressed watching Bolton manager John McGovern.

Young apprentice Andy Phillips has reason to be grateful to manager Larry Lloyd's demanding ways. Confined to bed with what his own doctor diagnosed as something not too serious, the manager called for a second opinion from Club Doctor, Maurice Reid, who swiftly diagnosed the start of pneumonia, a diagnosis confirmed by hospital tests. Doctor Reid's prompt action meant that the illness was caught at an early stage and young Mr. Phillips will be back training on Monday.

The Telford United Directors were so pleased with the hospitality extended to themselves and their players at Springfield Park that, at the replay at Bucks Head Ground they presented the Wigan Directors with a glass tankard commemorating the match. Fortunately it did not have the score engraved on it, but it is estimated that it will be some weeks until Secretary Colin Burke will have the heart to find it a place in the Latics Board Room.

The Junior Latics Under-13 Football Team continues to show us all how it is done. They have now played fourteen games and won every one.

★ ★ ★

Mark Wignall, who has now left the Latics, has reportedly signed for Barrow, although a number of non-league sides, including Leyland, showed interest.

Player Profile

Kevin Sheldon

KEVIN SHELDON

LIFE was looking very good for Kevin Sheldon in November, 1976. Having finally made it to Stoke City's first team for the last three games of the previous season, he had established himself as a regular and had played in every first team fixture of the 1976/77 season. And then, the team travelled to Elland Road to play Leeds United. By the end of ninety minutes, Stoke were lower down the First Division table and Kevin Sheldon was in a Leeds hospital with a double fracture of the right leg. "It was a real mess, twisted up and I thought that was the end of football for me", he recalls, the memory of it is still painful. After an operation by a top specialist in Leeds, he began the longest fight to recover — and long it certainly was. He was in plaster for 26 weeks, then wore a calliper for another eight, spent another four on crutches and, just for good measure finished off with two sticks. But such was his determination to recover and play again that by the following season he was back playing for the reserves. He did hurt his same leg soon after, but the manager insisted that it was just the screw, left in after the operation, causing him trouble. But when "the trouble" didn't go away after playing for four months he went back to Leeds to see the specialist, who proceeded to inform him that, for all that time he had been playing with a crack in his leg. Back to the operating table he went and once again, he had to start on the road to recovery. He eventually reached fitness again and played a couple of times for Stoke's first team. But by this time, a replacement had been found and when his contract was up in 1981, Wigan Athletic won the race to sign him.

Had things worked out differently, Kevin would never have been at Stoke in the first place. Playing for Staffordshire Schoolboys at the end of his last year at school, he was spotted by a scout from Sheffield Wednesday and was offered an apprenticeship. His team manager, however, decided that if he was good enough for Sheffield Wednesday, he was good enough for Stoke City and a trial was quickly arranged and the young lad, sixteen years old and five foot tall ("I've grown five inches since then") began his apprenticeship at the Victoria Ground.

Now settled in Wigan with his wife Marion and young daughter Elizabeth, the chirpy lad from Leed is philosophical about his bad luck at Stoke and his attitude to it epitomises his courage. "If I'd gone to Sheffield Wednesday", he remarks, "I'd probably have got knocked over by a bus on the way to training".

Central League

Wednesday, 8th December, 1982 Port Vale 3 Wigan Athletic 0

ON paper, the Latics Reserve side should have been able to cope with Port Vale Reserves, but unfortunately somebody, namely Vale's manager John McGrath, changed the writing on the paper. Wigan turned up with six non-contract players, three apprentices, a trialist goalkeeper and a recuperating Graham Barrow to be met by Port Vales first team. With no first team fixture on the following Saturday, John McGrath fielded his best men, with predictable results. Larry Lloyd was not too worried, however, and commented after the match. "The lads were playing a Fourth Division side and equipped themselves well". Graham Barrow, scheduled to play for just half a game, was put at the centre of the defence next to Steve Walsh and had a fine game, full of all the battling endeavour which has made him such a fine first team player. Manager Larry Lloyd reckons he could end up as a central defender in the distant future when "his legs start to go". And of the rest of the squad he observed, "They showed all the determination and effort that I expect from Latics players, and the experience they got tonight can only do them good". And perhaps the last word on the game can be left to Vale manager, big John McGrath. "My lads", he said, "have got out of the habit of scoring and of winning so I used tonight to boost their confidence, as well as to try things out that we'd practised in training. The Wigan lads provided spirited opposition and I'm sure Larry will be happy with them".

Comments from the Chair

GOOD afternoon and a warm welcome to the Directors, players and supporters of Oxford United, a club which has certainly benefited from the guidance and support provided by their Chairman, Mr. Robert Maxwell.

Mr. Maxwell's very welcome involvement with Oxford was partly brought about through that club's dire financial straits, and it is fitting that they should be our visitors on a day when my main theme will be, yet again, finance. For every club that has publicly flown the distress flag recently, there are ten or more who quietly wonder whether they will be next. And make no mistake, Wigan Athletic is not immune from the depression which is hitting League clubs so hard. Every month we fight an uphill battle to balance the books and I and my fellow Directors, along with the Manager and Secretary, are as interested in how big, or small, our gates are, or how many lottery tickets we have sold, as how well the team are performing, because unless the financial side of the club is right, we will have no team to worry about.

At the moment we must all be very proud of our youngsters, with "old men" like nineteen-year-old David Glenn and twenty-year-old John Butler leading our skillful and youthful group made up of themselves and Steve Walsh, Phil Williams, David Lowe and Mark Shaw. These are the future of the club and I am sure that you are as proud of them as I am. But our main aim at the moment is to ensure that they and the young lads following them have a future to play for, and that is why I call upon everyone involved with the club to do their utmost to improve our financial position.

On the brighter side, I am delighted to record the progress of our injured players who came through this week's Central League match so well. Whilst it is tremendous to have young players in the first team, it is by playing with older players around them that they will learn their trade and I trust we will soon have the mixture of youth and experience that will equip us to climb up the League.

In wishing you all a Happy Christmas and a bright 1983, I can only pay tribute to the great support that you have given us this year. Why it always seems to rain on match days, I do not know, but you have stood and sat in the wind and rain and cheered on the lads like the true football supporters you are. When our finances improve, increased cover is our first priority, but that may be some time off.

Enjoy the game and have a good Christmas.
